

Who? High school juniors and seniors interested in finding out more about music as a career choice.

What? Information: Career, major, and general information regarding music as a vocation: panels, informational sessions, one-on-one sessions with faculty in audition and trial audition.

Opportunity: Observe School of Music faculty members in teaching, rehearsal, and classroom situations; rehearse and perform with Houghton ensembles in concert.

Audition: Seniors may audition for entrance into the School of Music and for scholarship while on campus. Juniors may elect an audition prep and information session with a faculty member in their area.

When? Friday, November 12, 2010

Where? Houghton College, Houghton, New York

Our goal for you this weekend is to provide assistance and information to high school students as they consider career choices open to them. Often the musically-talented student is strongly drawn to music as a major field in college, but is unsure of either the strength of his/her talent or of the career opportunities possible with a music degree. We hope to provide answers to both questions during this program. We believe that Houghton College's Greatbatch School of Music is an outstanding choice for the young musician interested in a high-quality musical and academic education centered on Christian teaching and context, and hope also to give you a good overview of who we are and what benefits we provide.

Return Registration Form below to: School of Music, Houghton College, Houghton, NY 14744
