

Greatbatch School of Music
Houghton College

Invitational Choral Festival

Brandon Johnson, Clinician & Festival Conductor

The Houghton College Invitational Choral Festival is intended for talented high school singers looking for an exceptional musical experience. This year the festival will feature outstanding High School ensembles: GRAND ISLAND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL AND FAIRPORT POLYPHONIC CHOIR.

In addition, conductor BRANDON JOHNSON of Houghton College will lead the festival chorus. You won't want your singers to miss this opportunity. High School Conductors can send mixed quartets or octets from their programs to take part. The event will culminate with a closing concert of the invited high school ensembles and a festival choir, comprised of all singers.

For more information contact:
Christopher Aitken
Director of Choral Festivals
Houghton College
christopher.aitken@houghton.edu

Phone: 585.567.9425
Fax: 585.567.9517

Friday, April 3, 2009

