High School Choral Festival

Brandon Johnson, Clinician

Weston Noble, Festival Conductor

The Houghton College High School Choral Festival is intended for talented high school singers looking for an exceptional musical experience.

This year the legendary conductor, WESTON NOBLE will lead the festival chorus. You won't want your singers to miss this opportunity. High School Conductors from all over Western New York will nominate singers from their programs to take part. The event will culminate with a closing concert of: the invited high school ensembles and a festival choir, comprised of all singers.
